Personal Profile

I am a hardworking, committed and reliable person with a passion for design that has followed me through my teenage years in to adult life. Constantly chasing perfection allows me to make sure that I will not rest until the quality of my work is to the best of my ability and beyond. Currently studying for a BA in Digital Media Design, I aim to launch myself in to the industry using my skills in digital media.

Work Experience

WRVS (Women's Royal Voluntary Service): November 2004 - March 2007

- Position: Meal Delivery Escort (part-time)

I have done both voluntary and paid work on weekends for the WRVS as an escort for their meal delivery service. This involved loading meals in to a vehicle delivering them to the elderly. I would take the meal to them, sometimes setting it up for them to eat. I learnt a lot about communication with the Elderly and other sensitive people with special needs I was also responsible for collecting money that they paid for the meals which was then handed over to the main office.
